TRUSTEE ENGAGEMENT FOR JAN 30 - FEB 19

Spotlight on Students: Westview Public School - Leadership

Westview Public School presented to the Board about their student-led Lighthouse leadership groups. These groups organize events such as the Variety Show, Lighthouse Assembly, Indigenous Hand Games Day, and the winter Week of Giving, which collects donations for the food bank and Center of Hope. Additionally, as a Leader in Me school, Westview instills all students with the confidence and knowledge to become future leaders.

Division Showcase: Lalithya Raavi

Congratulations to Lalithya Raavi, a Grade 12 student at Westwood Community High School, on receiving the RMWB Council's Excellence Youth Award! Lalithya prioritizes advocacy and volunteerism in academics, inclusiveness, and empowering youth. She is the founder of Eyes4All, a non-profit dedicated to promoting vision health and essential eye care, and a co-founder of Westwood's Women In Tech. This non-profit student-led organization promotes leadership and workshop opportunities in STEM.
